TEACHING AND PEDAGOGY

Graduate Courses as Primary Instructor

DOCT 414: Eschatology, Mary, and the Saints. 3 credits.

Saint John’s School of Theology & Seminary, Collegeville, MN.

Summer, 2017, blended

Course Description: Students will explore the eschatological dimensions of the Christian experience. This engagement with the Christian hope of eternal life will also attend to the place of Mary in the Church's theology and a theology of the saints.

DOCT 468/PHTM 468: Practical Ecumenism and Interfaith Engagement. 3 credits.

Saint John’s School of Theology & Seminary, Collegeville, MN.

Summer, 2016; Summer, 2020, online

PMIN 6399 Practical Ecumenism and Interfaith Engagement. 3 credits.

University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio TX

Summer, 2020, online

Course Description: *This course will introduce students to the ecumenical movement, and the Church's relationship with interfaith dialogue partners. It will give attention to the ministerial and liturgical issues which the contemporary situation produces, including communio in sacris, ecumenical or interfaith marriages, the reception of other Christians into full communion, and the situations arising from the many families that bridge these divides.*

PMIN 6322: Ecclesiology. 3 credits.

University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, TX.

Fall, 2018

Course Description: This course examines the nature and structure of the Roman Catholic Church from its apostolic origins to the present. Various models used in understanding the Church will be studied (e.g. the Church as communion, the Church as sacrament, etc.) The local and universal nature of the Church, and issues related to magisterium, authority, evangelization, ministry, and missiology will be discussed.

PMIN 6328: Sacraments & Worship. 3 credits.

University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, TX.

Spring, 2018

Course Description: Beginning with the roots of Christian worship in symbol, language, and social dynamics, this course leads to theological reflection on the sacramental life in the Church. Contemporary approaches to a theology of sacrament are engaged, along with principles for planning and leading Christian worship.

THY 402: Introduction to the Christian Tradition I. 3 credits.

Saint John’s School of Theology & Seminary, Collegeville, MN.

Fall, 2015, 1 online section, 1 in person section

Course Description: This course is an introductory survey of theology, studying representative texts from the pre-Christian era to eve of the Reformation (100 B.C. to 1450). Figures and issues will be situated within the philosophical and theological currents of their time.

THY 404: Introduction to the Christian Tradition II. 3 credits.

Saint John's School of Theology & Seminary, Collegeville, MN.
Spring, 2016, online

Course Description: This course is an introductory survey of theology, studying representative texts from the Reformation to the present. Figures and issues will be situated within the philosophical and theological currents of their time.

Undergraduate Courses as Primary Instructor

HONP 1110H: Introduction to the UIW Honors Program. 1 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas. Fall, 2019; Fall 2020.

Course Description: The purpose of this course is to lay the foundation for the work to be done in the Honors Program over the four years of undergraduate study and develop an awareness of self among others. Students will learn about topics including social justice, communication, the history and mission of the Sisters of Charity of the Incarnate Word, and the Catholic intellectual tradition within education. Students will also participate in co-curricular activities and service learning. This course is restricted to students in the UIW Honors Program.

PMIN 4387: Ecclesiology. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas. Fall, 2019; Fall, 2020.

Course Description: This course is an introduction to a Catholic understanding of the Church. It presents the major themes of ecclesiology, including the development of the Church's doctrine on the Church from Scripture, the Patristics, Scholastics, and contemporary teaching, particularly the Second Vatican Council's Lumen Gentium. The major themes will include faith and culture, ecumenics and inter-religious dialogue. This course draws from the student's other knowledge, especially philosophy and history. It serves as an opportunity for the students to integrate their knowledge and to demonstrate critical thinking skills at a mature level. Prerequisites: PMIN 3381 and 3385 Moral Theology. This course is appropriate for upper-division students in the Catholic Philosophy, Catechetics and Leadership concentration.

RELS 1305: Introduction to Theology and Ethics. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas. Fall, 2016; Spring 2017; Fall 2018; Spring 2019; Fall 2019.

Course Description: This course offers an introduction to the basic theological foundations of the Christian faith with special attention to its ethical implications in contemporary society.

RELS 1335: Spirituality and Prayer. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas. Fall, 2016

Course Description: This course studies spirituality and prayer as expressions of the human relationship with the Sacred in Christianity and other religions. It will emphasize Abrahamic traditions, practical examples of spirituality and prayer in the lives and works of selected authors, contemporary approaches, and the inter-relationship with justice and peace.

RELS 1327H: Theological Anthropology. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas. Fall, 2017; Spring 2018; Spring 2019 ; Spring 2020

Course Description: This course in theological anthropology aims to foster a greater understanding of the whole person in the context of the Judeo-Christian tradition. It is part of the UIW Honors Program.

RELS 3375: Catholicism Today. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas. Fall, 2020

Course Description This course is an overview of the beliefs, structures and worship of the Roman Catholics with special attention given to the social, historical and cultural factors that have shaped the Church since the Second Vatican Council.

RELS 3381/H: Christianity & Global Justice. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word Study Center, Heidelberg, Germany. Summer I Term, 2018.

Course Description This course will explore the basic theological foundations of the Christian faith in relation to contemporary ethical concerns related to inequality, poverty, violence and ecological destruction. In an increasingly globalized world, the Christian tradition has to engage with these questions in a world-wide, cross-cultural manner that engages with other religious traditions.

RELS 3399: Reforming Church and World. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas. Fall, 2016

Course Description: This course introduces students to the 16c. Reformation, its causes, and outcomes. It also introduces the modern ecumenical movement and its impact on contemporary Christianity.

RELS 4370: Senior Seminar. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas
Spring, 2018; Spring 2019; Spring 2020; Fall 2020.

Course Description: This course serves as a capstone for upper level majors and minors by providing an opportunity to engage topics of religious studies and theology within an interdisciplinary, seminar-oriented format, critical and collaborative interaction with writing assignments and discussions. The course serves to culminate and build on the first five or six semesters of a UIW student's coursework in the field of religious studies.

RELS 4349: Field Experience. 3 cr. University of the Incarnate Word, San Antonio, Texas
Spring 2020

Course Description: Students take part in a ministry-related field experience and reflect on that experience with a faculty member, usually in the form of a final paper.

THEO 1001: Introduction to Theology. 3 cr. Marquette University, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
Fall, 2013, 2 sections; Spring 2014, 1 section.

Course Description: Key sources and questions of theology as reflection upon the worldview and core narrative found in Christian tradition and scriptures. Includes orientation to the academic study of religion. Background in theology is not presupposed. Prerequisite to all other courses in theology.

THEO 111: The Biblical Tradition. 4 cr. College of Saint Benedict / Saint John's University, Collegeville, Minnesota. Fall 2007; Spring 2008

Course Description: This course offers an introduction to the discipline of Christian theology, giving primary attention to texts from the Bible (including selections from the Pentateuch, the Prophets, the Gospels, and the Pauline Letters), emphasizing prominent biblical themes (including creation, covenant, and reign of God), and considering some post-biblical developments in the tradition.
